*Many other activities are available for your students.
Here are some among many other suggestions:*

- Atlanta Cyclorama – The Atlanta Cyclorama is a cylindrical panoramic painting of the American Civil War Battle of Atlanta. The cyclorama is housed in a museum, also called the "Atlanta Cyclorama", in Grant Park in Atlanta.
- Atlanta Zoo – Located in historic Grant Park, the zoo features more than 200 species of animals from the African plains and Asian forests. See the nation's largest gorilla habitat or visit the playful pandas and adorable reptiles and amphibians!
- Six Flags over Georgia – This is Georgia's major theme park with heart-stopping roller coasters, family rides, and water attractions. From thrilling coasters to rides for the kids, they've got them all. Are you brave enough to tackle the Goliath? Fly like a bat on the Batman Ride or try a legendary classic, The Georgia Cyclone.
- Atlanta Braves Baseball game – Between the months of April and October, cheer on the Atlanta Braves at Turner Field. Visitors are allowed to bring food into the ballpark, so grab dinner at an Atlanta landmark on North Avenue, The Varsity.
- Medieval Times Dinner Show – Travel through the mists of time, where bold Knights on spirited horses display the incredible athleticism and thrilling swordfights that are the hallmark of this truly unique family entertainment.
- Stone Mountain Theme Park – Spread across 3,200 beautiful acres, Stone Mountain Park is Georgia's most-visited attraction – and with good reason. The fun never ends at Stone Mountain. Attractions include Geyser Towers, Sky Hike and Ride the Ducks.
- Fernback Museum of Natural History – Enjoy the development of life on Earth through the landscapes of present-day Georgia, connect with cultures from around the globe, engage in a variety of hands-on exhibits and don't miss the incredible 5-story experience of an IMAX film. See the "Giants of the Mesozoic," the largest dinosaurs in the world.
- Atlanta Movie Tours – Television and film is a bustling industry in Atlanta and there is no time like the present to visit ATLwood. Whether it's The Blind Side, The Hunger Games: Catching Fire or one of the many other movies filmed in Atlanta, let Atlanta Movie Tours show you the sites!
