

Bonjour Quebec!

Looking for just one thing to do, or you want to mix and match ideas to make a full day of it, either way we have a day trip to fit your needs!

Below is only a glimpse of what we offer, so please contact us for additional day trip ideas.

Quebec City & Countryside

- Visit the Chateau Frontenac Hotel – The most photographed hotel in the world! Follow the footsteps of a historical character and hear stories of this iconic hotel. Did you know that American President Roosevelt, British Prime Minister Churchill, and Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King, discussed strategy for World War II at the hotel?
- Sip on a cocktail at the Hotel de Glace – Belly up to the Ice Bar at the only Ice hotel in North America. An hotel made of only ice and snow that melts every spring!
- St-Lawrence River Whales – Journey to Tadoussac by water or land and see those fascinating marine mammals. Québec is one of the few places on Earth where you can see such a wide variety of cetaceans.
- Quebec City Haunted Walk – Discover the darker side of Quebec City's history during this walking tour. Hear over 400 years of bizarre murders, executions, mysterious ghost sightings, tragedies, and hauntings.
- Tour & Tasting on Orleans Island – This is Quebec City's garden! Your visit may include several vineyards, orchards, a goat farm and more! Come and taste pâtés, rillettes and terrines, jellies, cheeses, nougat and sip on wine, cider, and blackcurrant liqueurs.
- French-Canadian Sugar Shack Experience – The joyful melody of fiddles, accordions, and wooden spoons fill the air as local musicians play rigodon, creating a festive atmosphere. Sit along tables overflowing with traditional Québécois dishes such as pea soup, meat pie, crepe, ham served with a jug of maple syrup. Save some room for maple taffy that awaits outside!
- Cruise & Visit of Grosse-Île – Shrouded in mystery, Grosse Île unveils its secrets. Accompanied by Parks Canada guides, visit what was once a human quarantine station to counter epidemics and a transition point for tens of thousands of immigrants between 1832 and 1937. At less than 35 minutes from the city, it is a must-see historic site.
- Citadelle & Fortifications – Join a Park Canada tour guide and tour the Citadelle, this star-shaped National Historic Site fortress, then discover the impressive rampart that encircles Old Québec. These fortifications, erected under the French and British regimes, are witness to the evolution of Québec's defensive system from the 17th to the 19th century. A world heritage city, Québec is the only city in North America to have conserved the major part of its defence system.

Greater Montreal

- Jean-Talon Market – A landmark in Montréal's Little Italy is renowned for its multicultural flavour. The market features a wide range of shops selling products and foods grown or made in Québec.
- Discover Notre-Dame Basilica of Montreal – A crown jewel in Québec's rich religious heritage is now designed a National Historic Site of Canada.
- Brunch & Archeology – Located in Old Port, enjoy a delicious brunch on the water followed by a guided tour of the Pointe-a-Calliere Museum. Walk on the exact site where Montreal was founded and explore more than 375 years of history, then visit the Hudson Bat Company exhibit.
- La Grande Roue – On the shore of the St. Lawrence River, take a seat and enjoy an amazing panorama 60 metres high, four seasons a year, on the largest observation wheel in Canada.
- Dinner Cruise – Experience a dinner cruise featuring fresh local produces or escape on a sightseeing guided day tour.
- Biodome – Explore the picturesque ecosystems of the Americas, from the leafy tropical forest to the barren landscape of the sub-Antarctic.
- Montreal City of Lights – Discover the history of Montreal differently by strolling through one of the largest projection circuit in the world starting at night fall. Historic buildings are transformed in nocturnal tableau to recount relevant content related to Montreal's heritage and history.
- Old Montreal – Walk the cobblestone streets and wander the Old Port in the river's breeze, refresh and refuel on a terrace on Place Jacques-Cartier or meander down Saint-Paul street for shopping while admiring the stunning architecture.

Between the two cities

- Visit Musée POP – Quebec's folk culture! Explore the unique identity of Québec society in its diversity and development through enlightening and thought-provoking exhibitions. Also, as part of the Museum complex is the Old Prison of Trois-Rivières, a classified historical monument. Enjoy a one-of-a-kind experience which guest in contact with former prisoners willing to share their experiences.
- Food, Wine & Beer Trail – Whether you are visiting the Eastern Townships, Montérégie or Charlevoix, you will be able to find and visit exceptional wineries, cider mill, microbreweries, cheese producers and hundreds of other products created with loving care.
